

Handwriting practice grid for the number 5. The grid consists of 15 columns and 6 rows. The first row contains a large solid number 5 with red arrows and numbers 1, 2, and 3 indicating stroke order: 1. vertical line down, 2. top curve to the right, 3. bottom curve to the right. The second row contains a smaller solid number 5 with stroke order arrows, followed by two rows of gray numbers for tracing. The fifth and sixth rows contain dotted numbers for independent practice. A box in the top right corner contains five black dots arranged in a vertical line (two at the top, one in the middle, two at the bottom), representing the number 5.